A guide for visitors to the outdoor swimming pool (Maauimala)

We try to guarantee with these instructions that the going to the outdoor swimming pool is tidy and safe to everyone. Remember always to follow the rules, the instructions of the staff and the good manners.

1. The entrance ticket include use of the dressing rooms, shower rooms and pool areas.
2. Before going to the sauna and swimming, wash without a swimsuit or swimming trunks. This is important for ensuring good hygiene.
3. A swimsuit or swimming trunks may not be taken into the sauna. When necessary, you can enter the sauna wrapped in a towel. In this case, it is a good idea to take two towels with you to the swimming hall. You should wash after the sauna as well as after going to the toilet.
4. Swimsuits or swimming trunks should not have pockets in order to prevent any paper, lint or dirt in the pockets from getting into the pool. It is prohibited to use underwear under a swimsuit or swimming trunks.
5. Men and women have separate dressing rooms, shower rooms and saunas. Facilities may be cleaned by a cleaner of the opposite sex, too, or may be visited by a lifeguard of the opposite sex in case of a disturbance, for instance.
6. Do not eat in the swimming hall dressing rooms, shower rooms, saunas.
7. Do not shave in the swimming hall dressing rooms, shower rooms, saunas.
8. Parents or guardians are responsible for keeping watch over their children for the entire duration of the visit to the outdoor swimming pool (Maauimala). Children may not be left alone in the outdoor swimming pool (Maauimala). If you are in the outdoor swimming pool (Maauimala) with small children who cannot swim, only use shallow pools intended for children.
9. Deep pools are intended only for those who can swim. Aquajogging belts are not life-saving equipment, so before doing aquajogging, you should ensure you have appropriate swimming ability.
10. You should behave calmly and considerately. Outdoor swimming pool (Maauimala) visitors include elderly people, people with poor sight or hearing as well as people who have difficulty in moving or who move slowly. Running and making noise do not belong in the Outdoor swimming pool (Maauimala).
11. Animals must not be brought to the outdoor swimming pool.
12. Polite and considerate behaviour improves comfort and safety.
